TRANCE GALLOPS HOME ALONE IN STAKE RACE

BY VINCENT TREANOR.

(Special to The Evening World.)

JAMAICA RACE TRACK, May 12.—Trance won again, and in a big gallop. That's the nutshell story of the Suffolk Stakes, the closing day feature of the Jamaica meeting. Trance was at the prohibitive odds of 1 t 4, and this kept all but the big money crowd off, forcing others into a play on possible place horses. A lot of interest in the race was lost when Fitzherbert was scratched, Trainer Joyner depending on Rambie up choices for the place, and it was on last hundred yards to be third. these two the general public dumped its money. A few took a long chance Hoyle. Trance won the race from end all the way and was at the good price to end and never was in trouble, al- of 12 to 5. Alderman Downing Talks One Way and Votes Another at the Meeting.

"Heads of city departments have too uch latkude. They can buy steam vachts and automobiles, and even airships if they choose, and the city pays bill every time."

Alderman "Bob" Downing, of Brook- Robert Cunningham Killed While yn, said this to-day at the meeting of he Board of Aldermen. The matter of authorizing an expenditure of $5,000 for to a Brown, a control of the charter forbids purchases in excess of $1.000 except by public letting unless with the sanction of this board." unless with the sanction of this board," continued Alderman Downing, "and I stand for the charter as against private privileges for department heads, if city officials are going to gallavant in automobiles, sail in yachts and fly in airships. I move that similar privileges he accorded the members of the Board of Aldermen."

"Say," demanded Leader Frank Towling. "How are you going to vote?" "Why, in favor of Lally and his auto, of course—hang the expense," answered the Aldermanic orator from Brooklys.

MODEL ATTACKS THE SON-IN-LAW OF W. J. BRYAN

Artist Leavitt, Knocked Down With Bludgeon, Defends Himself With Knife.

son-in-law of William Jennings Bryan,

After being released from his engagement Cana returned repeatedly to Mr. compensation. This was refused him. The model finally came back armed with a bludgeon, with which he struck Mr. Leavitt a blow on the head. The Donlin artist was knocked down, but he jumped up at once and defended himself with a knife. He slashed at Cana and cut him in the head. Help came and the Italian was arrested and taken to a hospital. Mr. Leavitt was also cut on the head by the blow from the stick, but neither man is in a dangerous condition
